1. The Springbok Candidate, not the Troop Scouter, completes the Springbok Award Extension Application.
2. An extension is only granted if there are extenuating circumstances totally out of the control of the Scout.
3. No extension will be granted if due to poor planning or a late start on the completion of the requirements of the Springbok Award.
4. A Springbok Award Extension must be applied for at least twenty one (21) days prior to the Scout's eighteenth birthday. Any extension application received after the twenty one-day period will not be considered.
5. The Springbok Award Extension Application details what Springbok Award requirement(s) is/are still outstanding as well as the timeline for the completion of all requirements.
6. The Springbok Award Extension Application must include a detailed explanation of the reason for the delay in the completion of the Springbok requirements as well as a full motivation and justification of the reasons for a Springbok Award Extension to be considered.
7. The Springbok Award Extension Application is then endorsed by the Troop Scouter, District Commissioner and RTC Scout Programme.
8. The Springbok Award Extension Application is forwarded to the Chair: National Scout Programme for consideration.
9. The Springbok Award Extension is then granted or rejected and the Region is informed of the National decision.
10. The Springbok Candidate is notified accordingly by the RTC Scout Programme.

Springbok Candidate's Declaration and Request for Consideration

- I confirm that I have followed the original timelines of my Springbok planning and have completed all the requirements of my Springbok Journey thus far to the best of my ability.
- I further confirm that the delay in the completion of my Springbok Journey is due to extenuating circumstances which are totally out of my control, as per the reasons provided above, and not due to poor planning on my part or a late start on the completion of the requirements of the Springbok Award.
- I submit herewith detailed plans of all outstanding Springbok Activities to be discussed with and approved by the RTC Scout Programme and, if approved, I undertake to complete them to the highest standard required before the Springbok Award Extension expires.
- I understand that the granting of an extension for the completion of my Springbok Journey is not a given, and I will be advised accordingly in due course.
