The requirements as set-out in the HV Marsh Award for Journalism Terms & Conditions should be followed.

Most important: Groups wishing to enter the next annual competition must advise the National Office of their intention to do so by completing this entry form and submit it to info@scouts.org.za by 28 February.

Actual judging of the website and blogs will be based on the contents displayed on the four quarterly dates: 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 15 December. Do not forget to retain printed A4 screenshots of each quarter for submission of such material to be sent to the National Office by 31 January annually. The judges reserve the right to look at individual websites during the course of the year.

Please provide these details as well:

In the website submitted, how many people are involved in the actual production process of the blog posts or articles/digital newsletters (after the contributions had been submitted)?
